Block Advisory Meetings

* 76 Q.—SRI S. K. SAMBANDHAN: Will the Hon. the Chief Minister be pleased to state whether it is a fact that the Government have issued instructions to the Collectors of the districts to convene Block Advisory meetings once in two months in each Block of the district?

THE HON. SRI R. VENKATARAMAN (on behalf of the Hon. the Chief Minister): According to the earlier orders, the Block Development Committees were required to meet once in two months or more often, if necessary. Orders have recently been issued for the constitution with effect from 1st January 1960 of Block Advisory Committees on an ad hoc basis with the Presidents of the Panchayats in the Blocks as non-official members. These ad hoc Committees are required to meet periodically so that not more than four months should elapse between two successive meetings of any Committee.
